Cavs Win Season Opener

Cavs had trouble a few times getting into offense. Players had to learn to become passers instead of dribblers. Lakers' tough defense was almost enough for a comeback. As far as players go, Ethan Quinn did a great job stepping up and becoming the leader on the floor. Drew White also did a great job directing his teammates in the camp offense.

Suns clipped by the Spurs!

"Despite inferior coaching, the Spurs were able to pull out a win this morning," stated Coach McNeal. A 6-0 spurt in the 2nd quarter sealed the 27-24 victory. "Our team defense was very good today." Aaron Jackson and Bird McNeal were key players on defense.

Hawks Finish Strong Against Bulls

Hawks start off slow but finish strong against the Bulls. Hawks played well as a team and overcame a slow start. Alec Holt and Kyle Rollins sealed the victory with huge buckets late in the 4th quarter. Hawks hope to continue building their skills throughout camp.

Celtics Fight Off the Magic

Great win today for the Celtics. As a team, the Celtics played great team defense. Skylar Riggle, Ryan Faulconer and Brayton Miller did a tremendous job leading their teammates and hustling. Celtics hope to keep up the momentum and capture another victory later in the day.

Heat Able to Seal the Deal

After a sluggish start, the Heat were able to come up with a big win behind Lamar Thompson's defense and Blake Hilderbrants' leadership. The key to this win was the Heats intensity on the defensive end. The Heat played great team defense and hope to only improve throughout the day.

Hornets Sting Thunder

Hornets start the day off with a huge victory over the Thunder. With high intensity and team work, they were able to come up with a 29-22 victory. Bret Jones and Layne Pickerill played with great defensive pressure.

A.M. Session:

Memphis Starts Off With a Bang

It was a good solid game for Memphis. Memphis played great team basketball and seem to have great chemistry. Point guard, Nic Ball, led Memphis's charger with great assists and open looks shooting. Memphis came out strong but let up until the 4th quarter. The game came down to the wire, but a key play made by Colton Campbell led him to make the game winning shot.

Kansas Over Louisville

Defense wins games and the Kansas Jay Hawks proved that by holding Louisville to only 12 points. It was a team effort and we had some key plays. It all started with a three from Shane Zimmerman. Everything fell into place after that. With Matthew Shonkwiler's ferocious "d" and Drew Love point and dribbling, Kansas is going to be hard to beat.

Michigan St. Shines Over Syracuse

Syracuse comes out with a tough win after being down all three quarters. After Michael Wentz comes down and makes a tough basket. Michigan was also led by Aaron Oyer and his tough defense.

Gonzaga Sends RIO Packing

Gonzaga played a great team game. Ricky Meadows made many huge baskets down the stretch, but team defense is what captured the win. Dalton Tomlison, Layne Fitch, Andrew Fuller, Asa Condon, Isiah Sharr and Garon Purdy were all great.

P.M. Session:

Kansas Over Syracuse

Defense wins games, but so does rebounding. The Kansas Jay Hawks played great defense and out rebounded Syracuse by a huge margin. Dillon Sheppard completely dominated the boards. He was the "garbage man" collecting the trash and putting it back up. Caleb Montgomery also helped out on the boards. Cole Davis had a key "& 1" play. Nolan Marcum played great defense.

Memphis Continues to Build

Michigan St. is a very talented team, but they fell short when it came to the afternoon session against Memphis. Memphis trailed the entire game until the end of the 3rd quarter. Team work and high intensity helped Memphis to fight back and capture a victory.

Rio Over Butler

Rio bounced back in the afternoon. The team was led on the offensive end by Will Fenton and Alek Blevins. The defensive end was led by Blake Mowen and Tre French.

Gonzaga Over Louisville

In the second victory of the day, Gonzaga defeated Louisville. Garyn Purdy was a great leader. Ricky Meadows had another fantastic performance. Asa Condon, Elijah McCarty and Dalton Tomlison made key plays.

Night Session:

Kansas Flies Past Michigan St.

Game 3 today for the Kansas Jay Hawks was another successful game. Kansas came out shooting the ball well but trouble soon came. The Jay Hawks let Michigan St. back into the game, but Kansas picked it up to capture the victory. Coach Prater said, "Rebounding, Great Defense and team effort win games. The big man came through for the team and the guards did what was needed to be done. I'm proud to be the Jay Hawks' coach right now. We're on a role and we look forward to the upcoming games."

Syracuse Over Memphis

Syracuse pulls out a 20-16 win over Memphis with a great play by Aaron Dyer, Deshawn Burks, Quentin Alley, Josh Spires, Zach Smith, Michael Wentz, Jammison Neal and Bryce Hall. The team played together and fought hard. Syracuse hopes to improve throughout the season.
