

NBA Division:

A.M. Session:

Celtics Fight Off Hawks

Kyre Allison did a great job finding the open cutters and creating opportunities for themselves and their team. Ryan Faulkner did a great job on the offensive boards for the Celtics. Overall, it was a great TEAM victory!

Nuggets Able to Seal the Deal

Our team had figured out that with a total team effort, we will be successful! Both ends of the floor were excellent! Zack Maust and Ty Hiles really played hard and gave 110 %. Nuggets look to improve throughout the day and keep up the good work!

Lakers Sweep Spurs

Lakers' hard work finally pays off in game 4! After a slow start to the day, the Lakers turned up the heat with a 36-23 victory over the Spurs. CJ Smith and Austin Hollins controlled the game on offense and defense. Trevor Shouse played a major roll in the team win today. GO LA!

Bulls Push Over Magic

A great team defensive effort led to offensive opportunities and points. Points scored by Tito Gales, Riley Prine, Big Al Chrimer, Tristan Burgess, Corey Stevens and Jake Neal. Leading rebounders were Jacob Gross, Nick Holbrook and Marcus Day.

Suns Defeat Cavs

Suns come from behind to win big against Cavs. The Suns gave complete team effort on the offensive and defensive ends. Everyone stepped up and contributed. There was no single contributor to the win. They guys were pumped up and ready to go. We played hard and we played together as a team.

Heat Burn Thunder

The Heat pulled out the win despite a sluggish second half effort. They play of Nick Giompalo, James Sellars and Cody bryan was the difference. Their relentless effort defensively willed the Heat to victory!

P.M. Session:

Lakers Over Magic

LA pulled off another impressive team win with great team defense and hustled all day long! Leading the charge was Mitch McCorkle and Tylar Adkins. Both McCorkle and Adkins set the tone for the game. Great win LA!

Nuggets Thump Bulls

Derek Flint, Gunner Kelly & Jared Edens led the team on the offensive side. Defensivley, Ty Beaugard and Marcus Rodgers really stepped up and hustled. Nuggets look to improve on their performance and look forward to the Triple!

Hawks Take Down Heat

Hawks rebound from loss to pull out tough win over heat. The Hawks defense continues to shine and lead the team to victories. Aaron Thompson continues to dominate the boards. Will Finley and Trey Swain continue to provide on both the offensive and defensive ends.

Thunder Shakes Up Suns

The Thunder came out very intense and got the victory today. Dylan Miller led the team and got a basket every time they needed one. Alex Dickerson played great defense and had a couple of blocked shots and steals. All around, the Thunder played exciting basketball.

Celtics Blow By Cavs

Great win for the Celtics today. Brandon Daniel, Logan Stepp and Brandon Rowe did an awesome job setting the tone and leading their team with high intensity and positive attitudes.

Hornets Sting Spurs

Due to great defensive play, the Hornets were able to slip passed the Spurs. Javon Booth added great leadership to the game with his positive attitude. The Hornets rebounding was impressive. They look to improve as their season goes on.

Night Session:

Nuggets with another Victory

Thanks to wonderful passing, the Nuggets were able to set the tone and capture their last victory of the evening. Marcus Rodgers and Zane Bunnell did a great job on the boards and grabbed every rebound insight.

Scoreboard

NBA Division:

A.M. Session:

Celtics 26 Hawks 25
Nuggets 29 Hornets 22
Lakers 36 Spurs 23
Bulls 34 Magic 22
Suns 24 Cavs 18
Heat 28 Thunder 26

P.M. Session:

Hawks 20 Heat 14
Thunder 22 Suns 8
Nuggets 25 Bulls 16
Lakers 34 Magic 22
Celtics 36 Cavs 28
Hornets 35 Spurs 25

Night Session:

Nuggets 25 Thunder 17
Lakers 29 Hawks 25
Heat 28 Magic 25
Hornets 24 Suns 11
Celtics 38 Bulls 37
Spurs 32 Cavs 24

OLYMPIC Division:

A.M. Session:

England 31 Argentina 18
Puerto Rico 23 USA 18
China 30 Brazil 27
Jamaica 24 Italy 23
Spain 22 Greece 19
Canada 27 Australia 15

P.M. Session:

China 31 Argentina 28
Australia 25 Jamaica 19
Italy 20 Greece 16
England 22 Puerto Rico 20
USA 24 Brazil 23
Canada 31 Spain 29

Night Session:

England 34 Jamaica 28
Spain 43 China 41
Greece 34 USA 27
Italy 33 Puerto Rico 15
Brazil 31 Australia 23
Canada 26 Argentina 21

NCAA Division:

A.M. Session:

Kansas 18 Gonzaga 8
Michigan St. 17 LVille 8
Rio 24 Memphis 18
Syracuse 25 Butler 10

P.M. Session:

Syracuse 23 Rio 17
Michigan 16 Gonzaga 14
Louisville 18 Memphis 12
Kansas 30 Butler 19

Lakers Fall Short to Hawks

Impressive day for the Lakers, pulling out yet another team win. Matt Leach gave an awesome shooting performance, while Will Haney gave 110% effort to seal the deal for LA. LA looks to keep up their high intensity tomorrow and prepare for the Triple.

Heat Burns Magic

After being down 3 points going into the 4th, the Heat were able to come together as a group to pull out the emotional victory over the Magic. Lead by the leadership of Lamar Thompson and the play of Cody Bryon and Chris Smith, the Heat are now at a strong 4-2.

Hornets Slip by Suns

The Hornets played hard from beginning to end with big buckets from Brandon Covert. Brett Radabaughion was huge on the boards and was able to collect many rebounds and put backs. The Hornets look to improve as they start Day 3.

Celtics by 1 Against Bulls

Celtics capture an exciting win against the Bulls. Skylar Riggle was the "Big Man" in this game because of his positive attitude and great energy. The Celtics played great team offense and found many open shots.

Spurs Use Camp "O" to Gain Victory

Cody Call and Phillip McPherson were the catalysts as the Spurs gained their 2nd win of the camp. The Spurs did an outstanding job of working on our camp "O". Players are buying into the system and it shows.

Night Session:

Syracuse 31 Gonzaga 18
Rio 30 Michigan St 28
Kansas 21 Louisville 14
Memphis 32 Butler 14

OLYMPIC Division:

A.M. Session:

England Starts Out Strong

England played their best game of camp today against Argentina. Argentina beat England yesterday in a close game, so the boys of England were hungry for revenge. Joe Henderson came off the bench and gave everyone on the team the extra energy they needed. Everyone played great team defense, especially Brandon Jones.

Puerto Rico Survives USA Comeback

Chandler Weber got the game-changing steal and bucket to close out a hard fought game. Reid Garrison also played great down the stretch getting key buckets when needed. Puerto Rico does a great job of running camp "O"! 2 days and counting until the Triple!

China Outlasts Brazil

China got their first win today due to Devin Henry, Jordan Utter and Casey Moore. Moore was the spark that got China headed in the right direction. China played great and overcame their weakness by improving their rebounding.

Jamaica Wins Close One

Jamaica edges out a barn burner against Italy. The team as a whole stayed together to pull it off! Ben Varney showed up ready to play defense for the Jamaican team. Point guard Cole Cottrill said it felt good to be on the winning end of a close game.

Spain Beats Greece

Team Spain collected it's first victory of camp! It was definitely a TEAM victory! Landon Hutchison contributed nicely in his first game. Ethan Puckett passed the ball well. Isaiah Franklin ran the fast break well. Logan McCorkle rebounded rebounded strong. Austin Fannin shared the ball and made good shots. Shawnaton Scarberry stepped up and ran his position well. Micah Saunders and Tyler Ryan each rebounded well and played aggressive. Paul Holley played well offensively and defensively.

Canada Defeats Australia

The entire Canadian team showed great defense during this day! Cole Schafer and Ty Staten controlled the floor with great ball handling and passing. Kevin Perry crashed the boards well. Defense, ball handling, passing and rebounds paved the way to Canada's twelve point victory.

P.M. Session:

Argentina Over China

China is on a roll! Their defense was great in the second half. They came out with great intensity. Casey Moore helped China to their second win with his great effort and positive attitude.

Australia Pulls Off Another Close One

With two players out for baseball, Daniel James played his best game. Adam Wilson and Alex Minton also made key baskets in the victory.

Italy with a Victory Over Greece

Italy was able to withstand a great comeback by Greece with pressure defense as a team led by Payton Halley and Bryce Day. Italy is now 3-2 in Olympic Division play!

Puerto Rico Falls to England

England defeats the only undefeated team in the Olympis division. There were no individual highlights in this game. Everyone on England's team played extremely hard. The game came down to a last second shot put back with 1 second to go by Joe Henderson.

USA Soars Over Brazil

Today's win over Brazil was a fundamentally solid win. We came together as a team and communicated on both ends of the court. Summit Rosenberg, Luke Purdy and Jordan Jackson played and handled roles as paoint and wing players. They ran the camp offense with great poise and leadership. However, Grant McIntosh, Brandon Saunders, Harley Carpenter, and Caleb Bailes added the force down low.

Canada Outlasts Spain

Canada took a quick lead with a couple of tough baskets from Taylor McFadden. Kole Carter was big in controlling loose balls down the stretch. Ty Staten was a wizard with the ball, setting up teammates for easy buckets.

Night Session:

Spain with Victory Over China

Team Spain got another win on Tuesday. The win improved Spain to a 2-1 record on the day. Tyler Ryan played excellent help defense and was strong on the boards. Shawnathon Scarberry finished strong at the basket. Spain looks to keep improving as they move onto day 3.

Greece Soars By USA

Greece beats USA in a barn burner. Greece rode the back of Trevor Medley and Jake Henderson's offense. Eli Hurr and Brody Storm played great defense. Hunter Klieber and Rett Ball played a great post game.

England Pulls Out Win Over Jamaica

The England team got another tough victory today. Josiah Cox, Brandon Jones and Tim Snider rebounded the ball extremely well, snatching every rebound that went their way. Chris Mocks and Logan Carpenter played great on the ball defense. Ethan Leonard and Joe Henderson also did a great job running "Camp O."

Italy Runs By Puerto Rico

Team Italy utilized the fast break offense streaking to a 33-15 victory over Puerto Rico, putting them into a tie for 2nd in the Olympic Division. A monster rebounding game from Brady Hinkle and Clayton Christenson was key in the Italians fast break attack.

Brazil with High Intensity

Blake Howard was unstoppable. He hit four 3-point buckets. Mike Sullivan and Alec Irving were aggressive on the boards. Devyn Addy had 3 assists. Brazil is gaining confidence and are looking to improve as they move on to day 3.

Canada Flies By Argentina

Canada's on a roll with another win led by the help defense and rebounding of Kevin Perry. Cole Schafer played through an injury and had many key steals and put backs. Canada looks to improve into Day 3 and prepare for the Triple.

NCAA Division:*A.M. Session:Rio Wins Day 2 Opener

In the first game of the day, Rio played well to get a hard fought win against Memphis. Rio played excellent defense led by Blake Mowen, Dylan Edens and Alek Blveins. Rio had a big burst on the offensive end from Joshua Faro and Will Fenton. Way to go Storm!

Kansas Remains Undefeated

Kansas has great momentum and it just keeps getting better. Kansas played great team offense. They were led in passing and dribbling by Matthew Shonkwiler and Steven Zimmerman. Dillon Shepard and Caleb Montgomery dominated the glass for the Jay Hawks. "I'm very proud of my boys. We're playing great team ball and everyone had a huge role in the win," said Coach Prater.

Michigan St Finishes Strong Against Louisville

Michigan St played team defense and perfected the camp offense. Michael Malone rebounded extremely well. Logan Swackhammer and Corey Call were excellent team players. Dylan Shriver and Evan Wiseman subbed in the game and kept up the high intensity.

Syracuse Over Butler

Syracuse makes their record 3-1 this morning with a victory over Butler. The team played solid team defense. Coach Neal believes that though they played well, there is always room for improvement. He wishes to see his team improve throughout camp.

*P.M. Session:Syracuse Over RIO

Syracuse wins after a hard fought game against Rio. All the guys from both teams played hard and gave 110%. Nick Smith really played hard and helped his team with the win.

Michigan St Continues to Build

Dakota Nehus and Michael Malone have been on a role with rebounding. Corey Call, Logan Swackhammer, Evan Wiseman and Dylan Miller have took the lead rolls in clutch time and helped to pull out victories.

Louisville Over Memphis

Louisville snaps a 4 game losing streak. Eli Fuller comes up big with great defense. Grant Sparks hit a great lay up to put his team up 4 points. Mason Fannin showed great leadership by helping his players stay in the game. Jared Lemaster hit the game winning shot to stop the losing streak.

Sweet Win for Kansas

Kansas had their first thriller. The game was tied at half with an 8-8 score. Kansas previously gave up only 8 points to their last opponent. Drew Lowe came down with some great defensive rebounds to start off the 3rd quarter. Thanks to the Zimmerman Duo, Kansas had some good, quick easy buckets. Cole Davis had an offensive rebound that really finished off the game. Nolan Marcum played very aggressive and sat the tone early. Looks like the sky is the limit for Kansas!

*Night Session:Syracuse Flies Past Gonzaga

Syracuse comes out with another win with great play from Deshawn Burks and Bryce Hall. Both men led the team with their positive attitudes and high energy. Everyone on the team played great offense!

RIO Over Michigan St

This was the most exciting game for the Red Storm. The game went down to the wire in overtime. We won the battle with a good defensive effort from new comer, Pierce Wilcoxon and an exciting last second shot from Dylan Edens.

Kansas Beats Louisville

There's only one way to describe this win - hard fought. The Kansas Jay Hawks were pushed to the max by the great defense of Louisville. It was a well played great game all around. "My men were put to the test today and they came through for me. I'm proud of my team and the great job we've done," said Coach Prater.

Memphis Soars Over Butler

Memphis bounces back after being on a three game losing streak. Memphis finally gets back in the winning column. Memphis came out at the start of the game determined to get back on the winning side. Everyone on Memphis's team played great. Bryce Pearson, Nic Ball, Tyler Hale, Trevor Neal, Kyler Sellars, Simon Thoroughman, Devon Webb and Colton Campbell all played BIG!