

NBA Division:

A.M. Session:

Magic Sends Suns Packing

The Magic come away with a much needed victory before the "Triple." "They played great together on both ends of the court," says Coach Handley. Magic played hard for four quarters and never took a play off.

Heat Able to Seal the Deal

Even though it was first thing in the morning, the Heat was awake and full of energy. In a complete team effort, the Heat blew past the Bulls in a 26-16 win. The win put the Heat at 5-2 and going strong into the Triple!

Thunder Sweep Lakers

The Thunder came out and ran the offense to perfection in their game with the Lakers. Dylan Miller hit two clutch 3 pointers to get the go ahead score. Bryant Mayhugh played excellent defense and denying anyone the ball.

Cavs Push Through Hawks

After a few game losing streak and the addition of Matthew "Chew" Smallwood, the Cavs looked really great! With Smallwood now playing the point, it allowed Chance Short and Clay Archer to provide more scoring, while Ethan Quinn, Cannon Kilabarger, and Evin "Will Farrell" Statts controlled the boards. The Cavs played great on the defensive end led by Drew White and Chad Taborn.

Spurs Defeat Nuggets

With 1.3 seconds left in the morning session, Spurs' player, Derek Flint, hit a buzzer beater shot to seal the win against the Nuggets. The Spurs played with high energy and intensity. The Spurs look to keep improving throughout the day.

Hornets Sting Celtics

Going in as the second best team, the Hornets came out with a quick run on the Celtics with great play by CJ Glick and Jason Booth to put the Hornets on top! The Hornets look to improve as they prepare for the Triple!

P.M. Session:

Nuggets Outlasts Cavs

The Nuggets pull out a tough win with key plays down the stretch. Marty Beaugard and Ty Hiles led the team with their positive attitudes and high intensity levels. The Nuggets look to improve as they prepare for the Triple.

Bulls Coming Together

Led by Tito Gales with 4 steals, the Bulls put together a strong 2nd half defensive effort to top the Spurs. Offensively, the Bulls relied on transition baskets and strong post play by Corey Stevens. Going into the Triple, the Bulls look to solidify their offensive execution to go deep into the tournament.

Hornets Thump Heat

A great hard fight led the Hornets to victory in the afternoon session. Sky Oliver had the winning left handed lay up to win in sudden death. The Hornets look to improve their play as they move on.

Hawks Take Down Suns

Hawks rebound from losing streak to blow out Suns. Trey Swain, Kyle Rollins and new comer, Phillip Mcpherson created deflections and played aggressive defense. Overall the Hawks played their best game of the week.

Celtics Shake Up Lakers

A great bounce back in today for the Celtics! Key players in this victory were Zack Beegle and Brandon Rowe as they led their team with high energy and positive attitudes.

Orlando Still Has "Magic" Left

Another team win gives the Magic a two game winning streak. Big time performances by Tristan Wolfe, Brad Prather and Brady Johnson gives the Magic some momentum going into the tourney, "If my rebounders, Cameron Queen, Dustin Willey and new comer, Aaron Thimp keep dominating the glass, we will be hard to beat," says Coach Handley.

Night Session:

Cavs with another Victory

After a long afternoon, the Cavs fought until the final whistle to pull out a "W" behind Chance Shorts's two free throws to put the Cavs ahead with only 30 seconds left. The Cavs look to only improve as they move on and become one game closer to the Triple!

Scoreboard

NBA Division:

A.M. Session:

Hornets 43 Celtics 36
 Magic 27 Suns 9
 Heat 26 Bulls 16
 Thunder 37 Lakers 34
 Cavs 30 Hawks 25
 Nuggets 30 Spurs 29

P.M. Session:

Nuggets 35 Cavs 32
 Bulls 33 Spurs 23
 Hawks 39 Suns 24
 Hornets 37 Heat 25
 Celtics 38 Lakers 36
 Magic 35 Thunder 30

Night Session:

Cavs 30 Magic 28
 Nuggets 34 Lakers 20
 Spurs 26 Thunder 22
 Bulls 35 Suns 15
 Hornets 44 Hawks 41
 Celtics 35 Heat 30

OLYMPIC Division:

A.M. Session:

Puerto Rico 27 Canada 21
 China 25 USA 24
 England 25 Argentina 15
 Jamaica 32 Greece 30
 Brazil 31 Italy 21
 Spain 24 Australia 7

P.M. Session:

China 31 Puerto Rico 29
 Australia 27 Greece 22
 Jamaica 36 USA 30
 Argentina 43 Italy 41
 Canada 30 England 27
 Spain 31 Brazil 26

Night Session:

Puerto Rico 32 Australia 13
 China 40 Italy 33
 Spain 24 Jamaica 22
 Brazil 33 Argentina 15
 Canada 28 USA 23
 Greece 22 England 20

NCAA Division:

A.M. Session:

Michigan St 24 Butler 16
 Syracuse 15 LVille 8
 Rio 15 Gonzaga 9
 Kansas 26 Memphis 12

P.M. Session:

Michigan St 23 Memphis 22
 Syracuse 29 Gonzaga 20
 Louisville 27 Butler 11
 Rio 29 Kansas 27

Lakers Fall Short to Nuggets

With a total team effort, the Nuggets were able to pull out the 34-20 victory over the Lakers. The Nuggets finished their night strong with high intensity and determination. Great team win!

Spurs Burn Thunder

"It's nice when everyone contributes & you come out with a team victory" With the offensive play of Ryan Faulconer, Nathan Scott, Bird McNeal and Cody Call the Spurs were able to find the open spot and knock down shots. Logan Thousen, Kyle Boudreau, Aaron Jackson and Kane Dixion added the defensive pressure that the Spurs needed to slip by with a 26-22 win!

Bulls Slip by Suns

After a 1-4 start, the Bulls have ran off 2 big wins by 10 and 20 points. Team confidence is on the rise. In the second of 2 straight wins, confidence building performances were turned in by Jacob Gross and Jake Neal. After missing 3 games due to an injury, Riley Prine came on in strong fashion both offensively and defensively. "We got da juice!!"

Hornets by 3 Against Hawks

The fourth quarter punch of Brandon Covert, Layne Pickeriol, Brett Jones, Seth Atkins and Brett Radabaugh helped to boost the Hornets lead and push them to a 44-41 victory for the evening. Both teams look to improve as they head onto Day 4.

Celtics Use Defense Against Heat

What a great win for the Celtics today! This victory is due to their high intensity defense. This was a total TEAM win and had nothing to do with individuals. What a great team effort! The Celtics look to build on their performance.

Night Session:

Syracuse 24 Kansas 22
Rio 41 Memphis 24
Louisville 21 Gonzaga 19
Michigan St 11 Butler 4

OLYMPIC Division:

A.M. Session:

Puerto Rico Starts Out Strong

Puerto Rico used a total team effort to defeat Canada. Gunner Short played a great defensive game, getting in the passing land and boxing out. Reid Garrison and Richard Crockrel kept Puerto Rico with a steady tempo on the offensive end.

China By 1 Over USA

China wins their third game due to their tough nose defense. Marcus Moore had his best game yet, grabbing rebounds and putting them back up for points. China looks to improve as their day goes on.

England Outlasts Argentina

Team England has picked the perfect time to start peaking. Chris Hucks and Logan Carpenter played great defense, along with Brandon Jones and Josiah Cox's efforts on grabbing every loose ball. England is preparing for the Triple and poised to bring back the title!

Jamaica Wins Close One

Jamaica won a barn burner with Greece in overtime. Josh Palmer did it all for Jamaica. He led the team in both rebounds and points. Because of their win, the team will get to enjoy McDonald's sundaes!

Brazil Beats Italy

Blake Howard and Derrick Jones scored back to back baskets. Brazil center, Alec Irvin, was a beast in the paint. Kane Hutinson had a steal that changed the tempo of the game! Brazil looks to improve throughout the day as they prepare for the Triple!

Spain Defeats Australia

Spain started Wednesday with a huge win due to their TEAM defense. Tyler Ryan played great team defense. Landon Hutchison and Shawntation Scarberry ran the offense well and scored easy lay ups. Logan McCorkle rebounded well and contributed to the win.

P.M. Session:

Puerto Rico Over China

Puerto Rico gets key stops late to close out China! Dylon Beaugard led Puerto Rico to its best win to date. Andrew Burning was able to finish just about every time he got a touch on the ball in the lane. Conner Flynn was spectacular on both ends of the floor today!

Austraila Pulls Off Another Win

Austraila can blame their victory on their high energy and hustle in the second quarter. Kelton Collins and Jason Sayre were off and running camp offense to secure the victory.

Jamaica with a Victory Over USA

Two buzzer beaters helped push Jamaica over the USA. Cole Cottrill led the team to victory with his positive attitude and ability to lead. Ya Mon!

Argentina Falls to Italy

Argentina played hard and well today. The team leaders were Nate Thomas and Chase Jones. Aaron Owens was a beast on the boards.

Canada Soars Over England

Ty Staten took over down the stretch by setting up teammates with easy buckets. Cole Schafer read the defense by getting several backdoor lay ups.

Spain Over Brazil

Team Spain improved their record to 4-4 on the season. Isaiah Franklin ran the offense well at point. Austin Fannin played hard on both ends of the court. Spain looks to improve on their performance as they head into the Triple!

Night Session:

Puerto Rico Dismantles Aussies

Gunner Short and Dylon Beaugard led the charge for the Puerto Ricans! Along with Conner Flynn, who was a pesky defender. Chandler Weber has a great mid-range jumper if he keeps shooting consistently!

China Soars By Italy

Chinas goes 2-1 for the day. Casey Moore and Turner Ruby played with high intensity and positive attitudes. Ruby rebounded well on the glass and managed to knock down easy jumpers.

Spain Pulls Out Win Over Jamaica

Spain went 3-0 on Wednesday, improving on their camp "O" and hard nose defense. Landon Hutchinson ran the break, controlling the ball and finding the open man. Spain looks to build on this game as they prepare for the Triple!

Brazil Runs By Argentina

Brazil was a little upset from their last game, so they gave great energy. Mike Sullivan, Brazil's forward, had 7 steals. Derrick Jones and Blake Howard had 4 steals apiece. The Brazilians grabbed every rebound. Sullivan had 8 rebounds and hit a huge 3 pointer.

Canada Improves With A Win

Kole Carter had a big game scoring and showed himself on the defensive end. Tyler McFennen showed a lot of effort and energy in the victory. Tyler Conger showed his great leadership performance.

Greece Flies By England

Greece beats England in overtime with the stellar guard play of Brody Storms and Jake Henderson. Rhett Ball and Hunter Klaiber controlled the paint. Trever Medley played a key defensive role as well as Brendan Schaumleffor.

NCAA Division:

A.M. Session:

Michigan St Wins Day 2 Opener

Michigan St played EXCELLENT together as a team! Trenton Osborn, Dakota Nehus and Michael Malone have rebounded consistently. Corey Call, Evan Wiseman, Logan Swachhammer and Dlyon Miller have performed well on both ends of the floor.

Syracuse Rolls Over Louisville

Syracuse played a tough game once against. Syracuse started their morning off right with high intensity and positive attitudes. Syracuse was able to hold Louisville to only 8 points the entire game.

Rio Finishes Strong Against Gonzaga

This game was one of Rio's best games of the week. They played great as a team on both ends. Rio is learning camp offense and to play solid defense. Let's go Storm!

Kansas Gets "W" Over Memphis

The Jay Hawks were puzzled when they heard no fast breaks because they love pushing the ball and cannot be stopped. Kansas managed to slow their game down and set up their camp "O". "We worked the ball very well with some great passes from our men. We need to keep up the hard work and push through our hard time," Coach Prater.

P.M. Session:

Michigan St By 1 Over Memphis

Michigan St gets a huge win over Memphis with their rebounding efforts and camp offense. Michigan St played as a team when it came down to clutch. Both teams look to improve as the day goes on!

Syracuse Flies By Gonzaga

The guys come out with another hard fought victory over Gonzaga. Zack Smith did a great job and played hard the entire game. Syracuse looks to keep pulling forward and hopes to peak tonight!

Louisville Brings the Heat to Butler

Louisville plays great defensive from Garrett Volger, Talon Osborne and Eli Fuller. Gabe Birhbimur, Mase Fannin, Jared Lemaster and Grant Sparks helps Louisville with their 27 – 11 win over Butler.

Rio Gets the W Over Kansas

Rio came out with a mission to be the first team to beat Kansas., Rio jumped out to a big lead led by Will Fenton, Dylan Edens and Alek Blevins. Rio kept the intensity up with great defense by Blake Mowen, Tre French and Pierce Wilcoxon. The game came down to a last defense play by Claton Howell and Will Fenton hit the game winning basket.

Night Session:

Syracuse Flies Past Kansas

Today Syracuse took down the number 1 team, Kansas, but both teams played extremely hard. Kansas had great play from Nolan Marcum and Shane Zimmerman. Syracuse's Aaron Dyer shined tonight as he led his team to victory. He was a leader on the court and set a positive example.

Louisville Over Gonzaga

Louisville wins in overtime thanks to Talon Osborne's game winning shot! Grant Sparks, Garrett Volger, and Gage Harrison helped lead their team with their tremendous defensive efforts.

Rio Beats Memphis

In the last game of the night, Rio displayed great camp "O" all game. Rio hopes to continue building and carry their momentum onto day 4 and into the Triple.

Defense is Key For Michigan St

Defense wins games, especially for Michigan State. Michigan St. rebounded well from start to finish. They complimented each other and played extremely hard. Michigan St. hopes to build from this victory and push forward as they continue on to the Triple.